

We are a Housing Association in North Belfast providing affordable quality housing to those in need. We have recently expanded our operations across Northern Ireland to almost 1100 properties and we currently employ 40 staff. We wish to recruit suitably qualified person for the Night Support Worker position at our supported scheme, Flax Foyer. Located in the Ardoyne area of North Belfast, Flax Foyer is a supported scheme which supports homeless young people aged 18-25 to prepare for independent living.

Our team of support staff engage with the residents to deliver individually tailored, outcome-based support plans. Support is provided to residents throughout their stay to develop the necessary independent living skills required to maintain their own accommodation within the community. Every resident is expected to be ready to commit to a training programme that will enhance their individual employability. Staff build professional relationships with external agencies to provide training opportunities to residents both on and off site.

The Foyer consists of 37 self-contained one-bedroom apartments. A communal lounge, laundry and computer suite are also on site. Residents make the Foyer a home for a maximum two year stay. Further information is available on our website www.nb-housing.org
